34.

① In the first graph:
- good classification
- good distance between the lines

② In the second graph:
- bad classification
- good distance between the lines

③ In the third graph:
- good classification
- bad distance between the lines.